Index, volumes 6 through 10

Compiled by Concepción Pérez

The index includes a comprehensive alphabetical listing of all authors' names, titles of articles and review essays, as well as titles of books reviewed in volumes 6 through 10 of the journal. In the 2091 pages in these volumes, 116 articles and review essays by 91 authors were published, while 166 books were reviewed by 114 writers. It should be noted, however, that a number of the essayists who wrote articles and review essays also contributed in other volumes as authors of individual book reviews. Therefore, due to their dual contribution to the journal we have a total of 179 authors, 45 female and 134 male. It is to be hoped that significant advances towards parity in the University will be reflected in the Index for volumes 11 through 15.
